Beverage & Food Vendor Event Overview

The Bloom Sips & Bites Social is a fundraising event to support Bloom360 Learning Community, a non-profit school for neurodivergent children and young adults.

Share samples of your brews, wine, spirits, and food with 125-150 people from all over southeastern Wisconsin.

Vendor Benefits

- Market your business while guests sample your product(s)
- Be listed as a vendor partner in the event marketing on our website, social media, and more
- No cost for participating vendors
- Complimentary guest passes to give to your customers
- Take orders and/or sell non-alcoholic products during the event
- All donated beer, wine, spirits, and food is 100% tax deductible and support a refreshing developmental approach to education for neurodivergent individuals

Vendor Details

- We will provide one 6-foot table and two chairs per vendor
- Electricity is available upon request
- We will provide cups, plates, and napkins for vendors
- Kitchen and two refrigerators onsite for prep
- Vendor arrival/set-up begins at 3:00 pm (vendor vehicles must be moved to designated parking prior to 6:00 pm)
- Earlier set-up times are available upon request

Busy schedule but still want to participate? Our volunteers are available to staff your table and pick up your samples and promotional materials in advance!
